

flies high with Dees

Miss Universe Australia Rachael Finch kicked off her journey to the World Finals at the MCG yesterday.

The Queensland-born glamour girl, 20, met Melbourne footballers Brent Moloney, left, and Brock McLean on the hallowed oval, even removing her stilettos to try her skill at the game.

"This is my first time to Melbourne and I've never seen an AFL game live," Finch said. "I can't wait to watch the Demons play."

The Miss Universe World Finals will be held in the Bahamas on August 23.

"The competition is going to be huge. You're judged from the moment you get off the plane," she said. "In the next couple of weeks I have to sort out my national and evening gowns and take dancing classes to improve my walk."